

❖ Clarifying Questions:

- What is starting and end time of Influenza season?
- What is recommended staffing level for nurses in a hospital?
- What is current staffing level at the Hospital?
- How long are the temporary staff staying?
- Who are the most frequently treated patients for certain complication?
- Which medications are given out during Influenza season?

❖ Funneling Questions:

- What is the city's total population?
 - What is the demographic distribution of children, elderly and adults within the city?
- Is there any information about past Influenza season?
 - In the previous information, are there any important points to note?
 - In the recent data, are there any adverse reaction of medication?
- Who are the main stakeholders and primary decision makers responsible for the planning process within the medical staffing agency?
 - Who decides where to put things during Influenza season?
- When does the influenza season start and end across the different city?
- When will the agency start hiring and sending temporary works to their assigned places?
 - What is special skills or requirement for nurses?
 - How will the agency handle things like getting temporary staff to where they need to go, finding then a place to stay, and making sure they have food during the Influenza season.

❖ Concerning privacy and ethics:

- Are people Cognizant of this Project?
- Who will be accountable for safeguarding this private data and privacy?
- Are there any legal or regulatory requirements that need to be considered regarding the use of health data or Influenza season analytics?
- How will the finding of analysis be communicated to stakeholders in way that considers or concerning information about the Influenza season?